

Development team:

Climate Vulnerability Atlas of India has been developed in-house at the Office of Climate Research & Services, India Meteorological Department, Pune, under the overall supervision and guidance of Dr. Pulak Guhathakurta

The following persons have contributed significantly to the compilation and analysis of various data, Computation of district wise values using GIS from station values, computation of different parameters and indices, preparation of web maps in QGIS, design and preparation web page, etc.

Design and preparation QGIS Web maps, analysis of data, computation of district statistics using GIS from station values: Shri. Ashwini Kumar Prasad

Design and preparation of the webpage: Shri S T Sable

Scrutiny and analysis of data, computation of several parameters using computer programme : Mrs. Pritha Menon, Sri Nitin Narkhede

Preparation QGIS Web maps: Mrs. Usha Krishnan, Sri S M Deshpande, Sri S C Advani, Ms Neha Sangwan, Smt. Elizabeth Saji, Shri S D Sangle, Smt. Jayashree Gujar

Arrangement of the disaster data in digital form from IMD publications Annual Disaster Reports: Smt. Bharati Sabade, Smt. U.J. D'Souza, Shri S.W. Sonparote, Smt. Sangita M. Kulkarni, , Smt. Priya V. Mahajani, Smt. Mangal P. Kolpe, Shri C. N. Shaligram, Sri S C Advani

Computation of parameters related to Cyclone in the vulnerability Atlas: Shri Raja Boragapu, under the guidance and suggestions of Dr. O P Sreejith.